INDIGENOUS SHOWCASE

Call for Artists

The West Vancouver Art Museum, with the District of West Vancouver, are pleased to request submissions for an Indigenous Showcase Exhibition that will run for the duration of the Harmony Arts Festival from August 2–11, 2019. Works in all media will be considered, with a maximum of 3 works accepted per artist.

To apply, you will need the following information:

- Up to three high-resolution images in jpeg format (maximum 5MB)
- Artist biography/statement – maximum 100 words
- Title, medium and dimensions of each work
- Price of artwork
- Application form

Please note the following:

- All works must be valued and priced
- Multi-media, two-dimensional works will be accepted
- All submitted works must be exhibition-ready and wired for hanging
- Festival staff will determine the installation of all selected works
- Festival staff will install and take down the artworks
- Festival staff will handle purchase inquiries and transactions
- Proceeds from sales will be divided 70 per cent to the artist and 30 per cent to the Harmony Arts Festival. Payment of sales proceeds will be within 4 weeks of the end of the festival
- Each artist is responsible for insuring his/her own artworks over the entire exhibition period including installation and takedown. The Harmony Arts Festival is not responsible for any accidental damage to the artworks- please note, the exhibition space is outdoors in a tent and subject to variable weather conditions, please keep this in consideration when submitting artwork
- Selected artists are responsible to drop off their artworks at the assigned exhibition venue as notified up to one week prior to the exhibition
- Selected artists are responsible to pick up any unsold works at the assigned exhibition venue; final pick up instruction will be provided in July
